BRIEF REPORT OUTLINING HIGHLIGHTS OF THE GAME AND OTHER NEWSWORTHY COMMENTS:

First competitive outing for the season for Carlisle and Penrith's under 10s saw both teams getting to grips with new areas of the contact game. Carlisle's core of more experienced players saw them dominate the mini tournament - with the Carlisle B team coming out on top - hat-trick hero Josh Park starring for the Bs whilst try machine Chris Green shone for the A's. Penrith proved worthy opponents and the repeat clash later in the season will be interesting as their talented players grow more familiar with the contact game.
